

NATIONAL PARK · CANADA · QUÉBEC

La Mauricie

at a glance

A hundred and fifty lakes in the Laurentian forest, exactly halfway between Montréal and Québec City, and a scenic parkway that runs right through it.

about 150

LAKES
some 30 for paddling

63 km

PARKWAY

over 110 km

TRAILS
(68 mi)

about 50

MAMMALS
species

BEFORE YOU GO

Halfway between Montréal and Québec City

The park lies in the heart of Québec, 60 kilometres (37 mi) north of Trois-Rivières, 200 kilometres (124 mi) from Montréal and 190 ...

Four seasons

Summer from 14 May to 25 October 2026, winter from 17 December 2026 to 28 March 2027, with two shoulder seasons with limited services in ...

Saint-Jean-des-Piles entrance

Exit 226 from Highway 55, then follow the signs to Chemin du Parc-National.

Summer

From 14 May to 25 October 2026, with a phased start and end.

Dogs only in the corridor

Pets are only allowed at the serviced campgrounds of Mistagance, Wapizagonke and Rivière à la Pêche and in the parkway corridor with its ...

Stay on the trails

The park authority asks you not to leave the marked trails, to take nothing and to pack out all your rubbish.

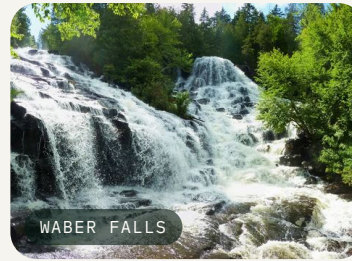

Fees and opening hours, up to date

Fees and times change. The park page lists them with source and date: nationalparksatlas.com/en/canada/la-mauricie

- | | |
|---------------------------------|----------------------|
| 1 Saint-Jean-des-Piles entrance | 6 Le Passage lookout |
| 2 Saint-Mathieu entrance | 7 Shewenegan |
| 3 Saint-Gérard entrance | 8 Lac Édouard |
| 4 Lac Wapizagonke | 9 Lac à la Pêche |
| 5 Chutes Waber | 10 Lac Anticagamac |

Green: entrances. Map data © OpenStreetMap contributors (ODbL).

WABER FALLS

LAC WAPIZAGONKE

CANOE CAMPING

THINGS TO DO

To Waber Falls

The park's best-known outing: paddle 4.6 kilometres (2.9 mi) across Lac Wapizagonke, about an hour and a ...

Paddling on 150 lakes

About thirty lakes can be reached by canoe, kayak or paddleboard.

Winter on skis and snowshoes

Groomed ski trails, snowshoe routes and shared multi-use trails.

For 5,000 years

The oldest evidence of people here is about 5,000 years old.

More on the park page

Lookouts along the parkway

The 63-kilometre (39 mi) parkway passes several lookouts.

Hiking for everyone

Over 110 kilometres (68 mi) of marked trails.

Lakes, forest and hills

The landscape is typical of the Laurentians: lakes, forests and rounded hills, crossed by rivers, streams and ...

The land of the Atikamekw

The Saint-Maurice basin has been home to the Atikamekw for thousands of years, hunters, gatherers and fishers ...

TOURS AND GETTING THERE

PARK AUTHORITY • NO
PARTNER LINK • DAY TRIP
FROM MONTRÉAL • SELF-
GUIDED • FROM MONTRÉAL
BUS STATION

Without a car from Montréal: Navette Nature to La Mauricie National Park

ON NAVETTENATURE.COM ➤

PARK AUTHORITY • NO
PARTNER LINK • BOAT
RENTAL IN THE PARK •
SELF-GUIDED

By rented canoe across Lac Wapizagonke to
Waber Falls

ON LOCATIONCANOT.COM ➤

Checked 20 Sep 2026.