

NATIONAL PARK · CROATIA · LIKA-SENJ

Northern Velebit

at a glance

Karst landscape, mountain trails and changing views between the peaks and the coast.

1999

FOUNDED

more than 1,700^m

HEIGHT
(5,577 ft)

about 40 million

FOLDING BEGAN years ago

about 6,000^{km}

TECTONIC JOURNEY
(3,700 mi) from 10 degrees
south

BEFORE YOU GO

Depends on the weather

The usual visitor season runs from early May to mid-November and depends on the snow.

Main entrance

Babić Siča is the main entrance. Other points of contact are Alan and the Kuća Velebita visitor centre in Krasno.

Babić Siča & Alan

Choose your approach to suit the area where you plan to hike. Kuća Velebita is in Krasno and is a destination in its own right.

May to November

This is the usual visitor season, not a guarantee that the park is open. Snow can limit access.

With a dog

Yes, on a lead and on marked trails only.

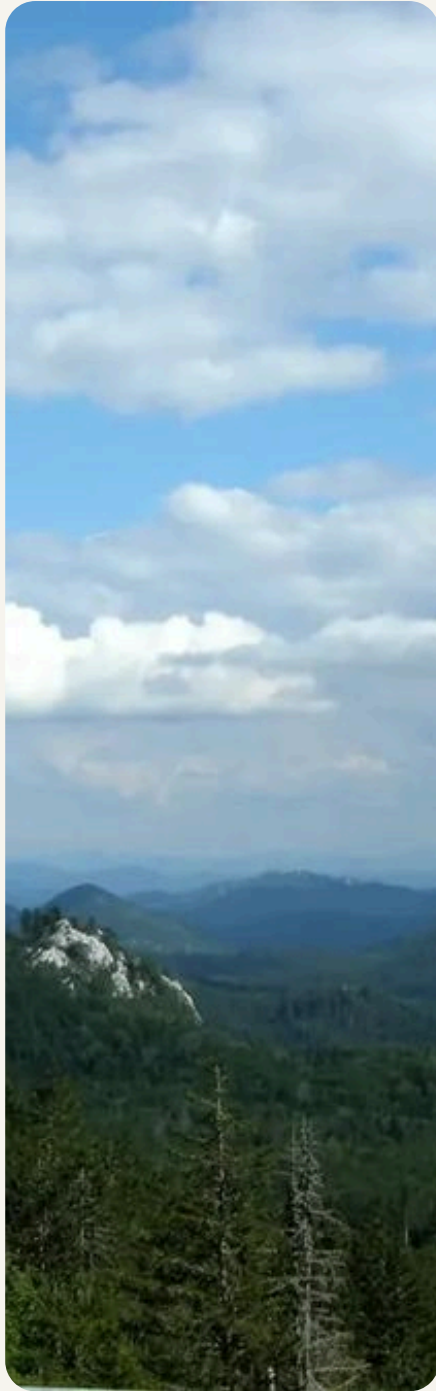

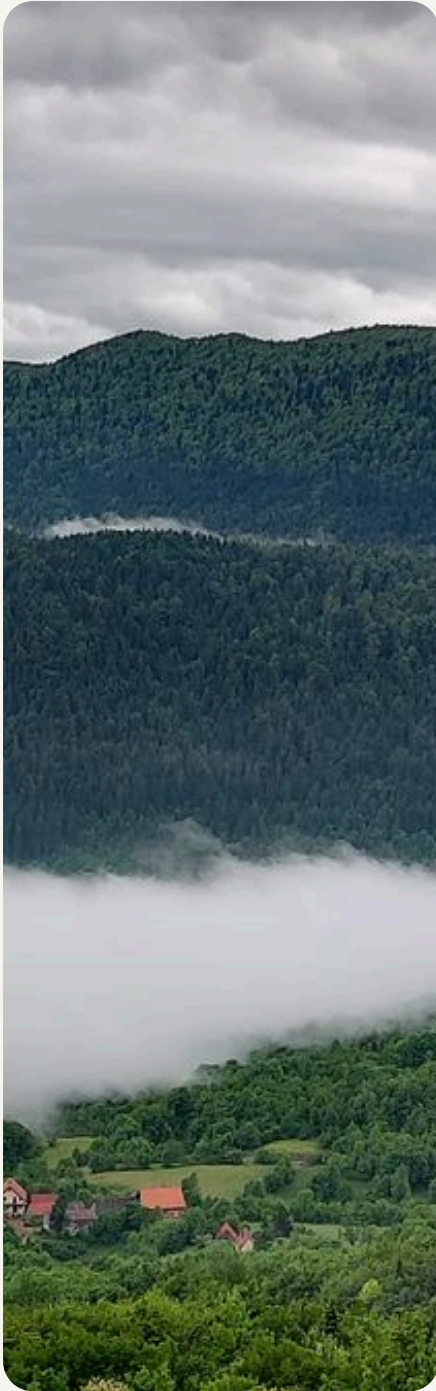

With a tent

Camping is not allowed outside approved camping areas. An open space by the trail is not a designated place to stay overnight.

Fees and opening hours, up to date

Fees and times change. The park page lists them with source and date:
nationalparksatlas.com/en/croatia/northern-velebit

THINGS TO DO

Zavižan

Mountain area

A mountain range that is still growing

Forces from within lift and break the Velebit, forces from outside wear it down.

300 plant species at 1,480 metres

The botanical garden at Zavižan shows native species alongside others brought here from other parts of the ...

More on the park page

Premužić Trail

Planning a hike

The Premužić Trail

The first plans date from the 1920s; the funds were raised by the trade minister of the time, Ivan Krajač.